A presentation of the Church-Wellesley Village Business Improvement Area

We welcome your participation in the Church Street Fetish Fair. We enthusiastically encourage all participants to energetically and proudly participate in their chosen activity / demonstration / performance with creativity and positive energy. This year's event will take place Sunday, August 16, 2009.

We must remind you that the Church Street Fetish Fair will be attended by all persons of all ages, sexes, orientations, colours, races, and creeds. Please govern yourself to ensure that all persons attending feel welcome at the event. In particular please observe the safer sex rules and all applicable legal requirements in carrying out your activity / demonstration / performance.

All participants will receive equal billing. Although we would like to, we cannot pay performers or agents fees or expenses for the true value of their performance. Bookings will be made as applications are received. Please contact us well in advance to discuss any particular requirements that you may have and to determine the resources that the Fair can offer to assist your involvement if possible.

Please complete the information portion below and return it to the Church Street Fetish Fair Entertainment Committee.
